

GLASSMAN

ATTORNEY GENERAL

Rodney Glassman's Biography

Rodney Glassman is a Lieutenant Colonel in the U.S. Air Force JAG Corps Reserve, experienced prosecutor, and practicing litigation attorney of nearly two decades. He is married to his law school sweetheart and the proud father of two daughters. Rodney is running for Attorney General to protect Arizona's law enforcement, children, and prosperity while working with President Trump to secure the southern border. On day one, Rodney will withdraw Arizona from Kris Mayes's click-bait lawsuits and rescind her political indictments. Rodney's campaign is chaired by Maricopa County Sheriff Jerry Sheridan, Arizona Superintendent Tom Horne, and former Senate President Karen Fann.

Statement of Candidacy

Rodney is a Trump conservative and the only candidate running with experience as a practicing attorney.

As a Lieutenant Colonel, when Rodney puts on his uniform to serve at Luke Air Force Base, he leads the active-duty legal office of JAGs, paralegals, and support staff providing all the legal services for the one-star general and base squadrons commanders. He has prosecuted drug dealers and financial crimes while protecting victims of sexual assault.

Rodney is also a successful litigator who has fed his family for nearly two decades as a private sector attorney.

Experience matters because the Arizona Attorney General runs the largest law office in the state, with over 400 attorneys and 1,000 support staff, providing all legal services for every state agency.

Protecting law enforcement means standing with law enforcement, every time.

Protecting children means safeguarding school choice, keeping biological boys out of girls' sports, combating fentanyl and human trafficking, and advocating for parents and families.

Protecting prosperity means enforcing Arizona's election laws, defending small businesses from overregulation, rooting out fraud, and ensuring Arizona's consumers and seniors are protected.

As Arizona's next Attorney General, Rodney will focus the Attorney General's office on what matters most: protecting Arizona and Arizonans.
